REPUBLICAN DEVICE.

TO VOTE THE REPUBLICAN
TICKET PUT THE X
UNDER THE LOG CABIN.

THE Republican State Central Committee recently adopted the Log Cabin as the emblem to be placed upon the Republican ballots instead of the Eagle against the use of which the Democrats were about instituting an injunction. The Log Cabin is the emblem adopted by the old Whigs in the campaign of 1840 and the suggestion was found here. To vote the Republican ticket stamp the X in the space below the Log Cabin.

To the Voters of Ohio County

Having been nominated by the Democratic party for the Legislature, I am before you asking your suffrage. I can only pledge you that if elected I will look after and guard your interests as I would my own, and endeavor to represent the whole people, irrespective of parties. I will appreciate your vote. Respectfully,
SAM K. COX.

To the Voters of Ohio County

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I am before you as the Populist candidate to represent Ohio county in the Lower House and am asking the suffrage of every honest producer of wealth. If elected, I pledge myself to work for the best interest of Ohio county, and look after and guard your interests to the best of my ability. I promise also, that my vote for United States Senator shall go to that candidate whom I think will best subserve the great majority of Kentuckians on the currency question, viz.: The enactment of a law for the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1. No one will appreciate your vote more than myself.
Respy,
J. P. MILLER.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We have made repeated appeals to subscribers who are in arrears with us; some have responded cheerfully and paid one year in advance, others have paid no attention to our notices. To all those who have paid we are very thankful, to those who have not paid, we ask you again to call or send in that subscription account you owe. We are at a great expense every week and MUST have what is due us on subscription. Look at the label on your paper and you will see how much you are indebted to us, and don't rest until you have paid it off. Your subscription account is just as essential as any account and you ought to pay it just the same as any other account, and you will confer a great favor on us by paying AT ONCE.

MESSRS. A. T. NALL & Co. have posted notices to the effect that on the 14th day of September they will apply to the County Court for license to sell liquor by the drink in Hartford. Judge Owen in the Contested election case decides the Circuit Court has no jurisdiction and the case will no doubt go to the Court of Appeals. Somebody must be getting mighty dry in Hartford.

The big G. A. R. parade at Louisville occurs next Wednesday.

Down with the town hog and town cow and up with decent streets.

The weather of the past few days is sufficient to remind, even the least observing, that the good year of 1895 is entering upon its last legs.

It's been nearly a week since the papers have had more than a half column about the bruiser brutes, Corbett and Fitzsimmons.

A 50 cent dollar may satisfy the laborer of Mexico and other Free Silver countries, but American laborers insist upon a 100 cent dollar.

The disturbance at Eminence which resulted in the breaking off of the joint debates between Col. Bradley and Gen. Hardin was raised by a lot of drunken Democrats.

The plan to befuddle the public mind by false issues put forth by Hardin in the joint debates wouldn't work and Wat had to get out of it somehow. Hence, the Eminence mob.

To attribute Col. Bradley's action to his inability to meet Gen. Hardin on the stump is to display either your absolute ignorance or your unequalled disregard for the truth.

The Free Silverites receive very little consolation from Mr. Balfour, First Lord of the British Treasury, in his recent utterances regarding an international monetary conference, looking to the remonetization of silver. England is not ready for such arrangement.

The Louisville officers waited until after the fight was over to serve the warrant of arrest on McCoy and Moore Monday night. They were waiting in Illinois, but had an engagement to fight at Louisville. Of course the accommodating officers stood by and saw the fight and then arrested the men.

The crowd which gathered at Eminence last Friday to hear the joint debate was largely for Bradley, but there was a number of thugs in the crowd who were well filled up on liquor and who went in to drive Mr. Bradley from the stand. They succeeded, a feat which Mr. Hardin could never perform.

In 1892 the people turned prodigal and went off after Democracy. In 1894 they returned in sackcloth and ashes and old Nature in answer to their repentance has killed the fatted calf, and in the way of a crop has got a hump on herself that discounts all her previous efforts. There's nothing too good for a returning prodigal.

The manner in which Col. Bradley was treated at Eminence last Friday would be condemned by any party in the world but the Democratic party and by the Democratic party in any other State but Kentucky. And yet Mr. Hardin and the Democratic bosses and small fry editors in view of Mr. Hardin's defeat in every joint debate are insisting that Bradley's reason for quitting the debates was that he was unable to cope with Gen. Hardin.

The Sunday Star, a leading Democratic Sunday paper of Louisville says: "Bradley has knocked the wind out of the negro bugaboo." The Star also says: "Kentucky needs a change." She'll get it. Again the Star says: "The election of Gen. Parker Watkins Hardin Governor of Kentucky would be nothing less than a public calamity. Aside from questions of currency he has a weakness, vacillation and greed for office that cannot be indorsed by serious thinking people."

In opposition to a hog law in Hartford it is argued that the hogs are our only street scavengers and that if we have no hogs on the streets the people would die of diseases, engendered by the accumulation of filth. Let's climb one hill at a time. Drive the hog out of town and then the authorities will be compelled to clean the streets, which duty has been but imperfectly performed by the town hog.

THE EMINENCE MOB.

Such a display of ill breeding and down right lawlessness as that which drove Col. Bradley from the stand at Eminence on last Friday could occur nowhere outside of Kentucky. Such mobocracy could find a home nowhere else save in a State which gives to the world 48 murders in 49 days. That such things should happen would seem to be bad enough, but so desperate have the Democratic managers become that they seek to condone, if not to wholly excuse the offense, and thus add insult to injury by intimating that Col. Bradley's action was unwarranted. Col. Bradley was grossly insulted by the organized mob of thugs, who were there for that purpose, and he did only what any other self-respecting gentleman would have done under the circumstances.

A fair and unbiased view of the subject can but lead to the conclusion that the Democratic managers sought these base and dishonorable means of getting Mr. Hardin out of a series of debates in which he was continually losing ground.

Such a state of affairs is sufficient to bring the blush of shame to the face of any fair-minded Democrat.

Will hoodlums and bums do all the voting in November? We think not.

Quay had things all his way in the recent Republican Convention in Pennsylvania.

The election is just two months away and very few if any clubs in the county are organized.

HAVE you a Republican Club in your precinct? If not see to the organization of one immediately.

He cried aloud for salvation, did Wat Hardin, and he got it at the hands of the Eminence mob.

Did the Republican party ever stoop so low as to import hoodlums to cry down a Democratic candidate?

HARDIN and the Democratic party were indeed in great straits when they instigated the Eminence mob to violence in order to drive Col. Bradley from the stand.

EVERY precinct in the county should have a well organized Republican Club and the time to begin the work of organization is now. To-day is the day of salvation, is as true in politics as elsewhere. What precinct will be the first to organize?

The ringing of the College bell makes life in Hartford more homelike. The College with its students and busy teachers is sadly missed during vacation, and all are glad to welcome the old institution to the beginning of another year's labor and successes.

THE brave Cubans who are fighting for political liberty are to be congratulated upon their heroism and devotion to the interests of their country. They have the sympathy of patriots everywhere. Here's wishing the Cubans may throw off the galling Spanish yoke and be free.

MR. BRADLEY made a good point says the Louisville Commercial, when he called attention to the fact that the free silver men proposed to make the silver mine owners $1,000 worth of silver into $2,000, but did not propose to make the farmers 1,000 bushels of wheat into 2,000 bushels. The free silver plan is to make silver mines equal to gold mines, and make the rich richer and poor poorer.

UNITED STATES Department of Agriculture gives the following report of crops for the month of August: "The report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture on the 10th of the month relates to conditions as they stood on the first of the month. Thus understood, the returns show an improvement in the condition of corn of about 3 points during the month of July, or from 99.3 to 102.5. The average for some of the principal States are: Ohio, 89; Kentucky, 113; Indiana, 100; Illinois, 106; Iowa, 407; Missouri, 115; Kansas, 90; Nebraska, 76; Virginia, 102; North Carolina, 98; Georgia, 108; Alabama, 99; Mississippi, 93; New York, 98; Pennsylvania, 90; Texas, 113."

It is awful to contemplate the disgraceful scenes that occurred at the joint debate, at Eminence, right in the presence of death. Mr. Leep, an old and respected citizen of the town, had just been killed by lightning in their midst, but nothing could influence that crowd of ruffians that had been imported from Frankfort on purpose for the occasion. A dispatch says that it is the opinion of prominent Henry county Democrats that on this account alone that county will give Bradley four hundred majority. No one blames the good people of Henry county, as the leaders are known to be clerks from Frankfort who were uneasy about their lost places.

THAT SECOND PLATFORM

The Democratic State Central Committee has reported the platform out to fit Wat Hardin and it is a miserable makeshift and a disgrace to the men whose names are signed to it.

The people are told by insinuation, if not in words, that Republican success means mixed schools and negro domination. When the men who wrote it and the imps over the State who shout it from the rostrum, know it is every word a low, mean, infamous campaign lie.

A Democrat writing to the Louisville Post of Saturday in speaking of the Address says:

"The Harmony Address of the Democratic State Committee, for down right childishness overtops any document ever issued on a serious subject by boys out of their knickerbockers. It is simply this: You must all vote for Hardin, or the State will be turned over to the Republicans, and that means the domination of the negro."

"The census 1890 shows for Kentucky a population of 1,590,456 whites and 268,173 colored people; that is, six of the former to one of the latter, or more exactly, 85 and 57-100 per cent. of the former to 14 and 43-100 of the latter. If all the colored men vote the Republican ticket, they must still get over 35 1/2 per cent. out of the white population; in other words, five whites must vote the Republican ticket for every two blacks. How little the blacks have to say within the party the Courier-Journal tells us everyday; and is clear enough. There is not a colored man on the State ticket; none has been nominated anywhere for the Legislature; none in Louisville among all the forty-six local candidates."

"Yet every six white Kentuckians are to huddle together in mortal fear of the one poor, ignorant, shivering, little nigger. At the same time the committee is paying colored speakers to enlist negro votes for the Democratic party."

"The address tells that, if the Republicans get hold of the State they will upset the common school system (which must mean that they will give us mixed schools) forgetting that the constitution provides fully against any such changes, and pretending not to know that while Kentucky Republicans have the same feeling against mixed schools as Kentucky Democrats. And they wind up by telling us that the currency is a national issue, with which we have nothing to do in a State election."

How does a party whose bosses resort to such rot expect to maintain their own self-respect, much less the confidence of the people.

The Democratic Party in a Bad Fix.

The Democratic voters of Kentucky have to choose between Hardin and the Democratic party. The Georgetown Times, one of the leading papers of the State, says:

"The free silver papers are jubilant over the position taken by Gen. Hardin in his speech at Louisville on the currency question. The jubilation is ill-timed. Without the support of the sound money Democracy Gen. Hardin would not have the ghost of a chance of election, and it is a severe test of their fealty to the party to support him, in view of the antagonism he shows to the party platform."

Gen. Hardin, in our judgment, should not receive a single vote from hard money Democrats.

Further than this, no Democrat, whatever his views on silver, should vote for Hardin. His whole course is destructive of all party councils. It is an attempt to substitute the will of a reckless and rebellious faction for the formally expressed will of the majority.

There is no precedent whatever for the course Hardin is pursuing. If it had been deliberately adopted to disrupt the party, it could not have been different.

Cried Down By Hoodlums.

It is a perpetual disgrace on the fair name of Kentucky that the hoodlum element should be allowed to cry down a candidate for the high office of Governor. Such was the case at the joint debate at the Eminence Fair. Was it the good people of Henry County? No it was high officials from Frankfort heading a gang of hoodlums that they brought along with them on purpose. Bradley made four attempts to speak but the hoodlums completely drowned his voice by demoniacal yell's cat calls kicking the loose boards of the platform and cries of "rah for Hardin." Mr. Bradley had been warned that the Frankfort crowd had come down to make a disturbance so when he did all he could and found further efforts fruitless he did just what any other gentleman would have done under the same circumstances. He withdrew. The State Republican Executive committee endorsed his action and cancelled further appointments for the joint debate if it could be called a debate. Mr. Bradley discussed the issues of the day—Mr. Hardin didn't. Hardin talked about the war and the demonization of silver in 1873 to which he laid all the ills of humanity and got no farther; but drifted off into race prejudice, called the Republicans the "nigger party" and in the same breath begged the colored man to vote for him. He feared negro domination in Kentucky, some thing no one else fears. In fact his speech was just to suit the time of 1873—twenty-two years ago when the war was just over and strong prejudice ran pell-mell through the land. Realizing that prejudice and prejudice alone is the wand that keeps Kentuckians in the column of Democratic states that it was rapidly dying out, that the people were beginning to vote for their own interest, letting the past bury the past, it was but natural when this old ship of Democracy was going to pieces in the mid-ocean of public sentiment that he would seize and climb upon the largest piece of wreckage left floating—Prejudice, and try to save himself. Sooner or later this fragment will be buried under a great tidal wave of ballots guided by a storm of sound ideas and principles as irresistible as that avalanche which swept everything before it last November. If the people of Kentucky say so it will be next November.—[Carrollton Commercial.]

The South No Longer Solid.

The South was not always "solid,"—not always Democratic. It was broken on the Tariff question, and will be again. Time was when the South refused to regard a "Tariff for revenue only" as its political Koran. A great upheaval, reaching beyond the silver agitation, is going on among a people who have passed through a fiery furnace that seems to have been required to make them even wiser, better and greater than they were before the war. Thirty years have sufficed to remove all old prejudices. Reconstruction is a thing of the past. The fear of "negro domination," which astute aspirants for office so long held up as the "bogey" man to frighten and consolidate the people, has departed, and upon the apex of all this gone and forgotten political lore we find agricultural and mineral development, and a commercial impetus which will, ere long, astonish the North and the whole world with its effect and results.

When the issue of slavery came to dominate parties all else of politics and economics in the South departed, and for at least ten years before the war, and even since, those things which have grown out of it have made the South "solid." There is a breaking up in North Carolina, in South Carolina, in Louisiana, in Alabama, in Kentucky, in Tennessee, and the whole South is on the brink of a political volcano. This is not inexplicable. The South desires to advance itself of progress, to share in the nation's development, and it can not hope to do that under the policy of a "Tariff for revenue only." That policy has struck at sugar and rice, coal and iron, and these products, agricultural and mineral, are so powerful that their ramifications extended throughout almost every State and into banking and business circles. Protection is a policy too broad to be limited by sectional lines, and its advocates are too liberal, just and generous to withhold its beneficent effects from any part of the country desirous of embracing the advantages of that policy.—[American Economist.]

begins September 10 and continues four days.

When the Republicans party gets control again, as it will next year, with some Republican for President such as Reed or McKinley for some other man, we will take up that Tariff yet and go over it item by item and make amendments to it as will give reasonable Protection to American labor and American industries as against foreign labor and foreign industries. The people of this country never knew they wanted that sort of Protection—they were never certain of it—until the Democrats, by mistake, got possession of this country two years ago.—[Senator Cullom.]

Carlisle Can't Help Matters.

It is easy to see how Carlisle could help his party by a stumping tour through Kentucky under present conditions. The chasm in the party is too broad now to bridge. He narrowed it just before the beginning of the canvass by his speeches in that State, but it widened when Hardin began his joint debates with Bradley and repudiated the platform. Carlisle can not help matters so long as Hardin remains on the ticket and continues shouting for free silver. The more speeches the sound money Democrats make now the wider the breach in their party will grow. It is a bad situation for the Democrats, and it can not be mended by anything either faction can do in the next two months.—[Globe-Democrat.]

WETS WIN.

Judge Owen Hands Down a Final Decision.

The contest case over the liquor election held here on June 17, voting whisky back in the town of Hartford, and over which there has been a great deal of bitter feeling and hard work, has been decided by Judge Owen. He handed down his decision last Friday in which he sustained the "wets." Hartford is now perhaps out of the fight on that question, which has consumed the attention of her citizens for nearly a year. We have heard some talk of an appeal but can learn nothing for certain about it.

McHenry and Likens Speak.

Mr. John J. McHenry, an active young Ohio county politician, was in the city last night. He is a son of the late Hon. Henry D. McHenry, of Hartford, and when the latter died, while yet a member of the Constitutional Convention, the son was unanimously chosen to fill out the unexpired term. Talking of politics, Mr. McHenry said: "We are all right in Ohio county. We have the most abundant crop we have raised in years, and the people are prosperous and satisfied. We have no serious division over the money question our people as a rule being for sound money. Nevertheless, we do not regard the currency as an issue in the State campaign, and do not propose to let the Republicans profit by any differences among ourselves on this score. Ohio county is very close between the two parties, and fell into the Republican column over 300 last fall, but we are in better condition now, and feel confident of carrying it for our legislative candidate and for the State ticket."

"Mr. S. K. Cox, our nominee for representative, is an excellent man and will make a capable legislator. He is a sound money man and is understood to be either for McCree or Buckner for Senator."

Mr. McHenry was accompanied by Mr. G. B. Likens, Chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Ohio county. Mr. Likens indorsed what Mr. McHenry said. He said in addition: "The Republicans are fighting to win this year, and all of that element in their party which went off with the Populists last year is back in line now and will vote for Bradley. Strange to say this is not true of those who left the Democratic party, they not having realized yet that they are playing into the hands of the Republicans."—[Courier-Journal.]

Before Times and the Cause.

Republicans rejoice in all evidence of returning prosperity. The business interests of the country were stricken down by the success of Mr. Cleveland on a platform demanding the immediate overthrow of the Protective system, and at the head of a party which had shown its friendship in every way to free silver coinage. The Democrats of the House of Representatives, as soon as called together by Mr. Cleveland, began to work on a bill under the supervision of Mr. Wilson designed to carry out the platform. It was passed by the House, but the Senate substituted another bill for it, which, under the lead of Mr. Gorman, the Democratic manager of that body, changed the Wilson bill into an irregular and unsystematic Protection measure. Business did not revive after that bill was passed because the Free-Trade and ruling element of the Democratic party denounced it as a base betrayal of principle, and declared at the first opportunity further steps would be taken toward Free-Trade. Last November the people had a chance to express their opinion, and they did so in a way that showed that there would be no more Free-Trade legislation for a long time to come. Then manufacturers and other business men felt safe in making some calculations for the future, and business began to revive. The indications are that we will have good crops and fair prices, and good crops and fair prices help the revival that the Republican victories started. The Republicans promised last fall that times would begin to improve if their cause was indorsed by the people, and the promise has been carried out. Times are better, but they are not wholly good, and will not be until Republicans are put in full charge of the administration of Government affairs.—[Louisville Commercial.]

Mr. J. C. Herald comes to the front with a cucumber story. He has a vine on his farm, which is an unassuming vine, and to look at it you would never suppose that it was the father and mother of 442 cucumbers. But it is an actual fact, and Mr. Herald stands ready and willing to prove it.
Mr. Ed R. Williams, Paradise, called to see us Monday, and showed us a $20.00 bill made in Philadelphia in the year 1778 by Nall & Seller. It was the old Continental money and was quite a curiosity to the people of Hartford. It was originally the property of his great grandfather. Mr. Williams prizes it very highly, not only as a curiosity, but as an heirloom.
Ed Daniel and Miss Eva Chapman, both of the Bell's Run neighborhood, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Thursday, August 29, by Rev. J. A. Bennett, at his home near Bada. The attendants were Mr. B. F. Stewart and Miss Ada Taylor. Both are popular young people and have a large circle of admiring friends, who join in wishing them a long and happy life.

F. M. Haven was tried before United States Commissioner Bell yesterday for depositing or causing to be deposited an obscene letter in the post-office at Rosine. He was held over, and in default of a $400 bond was committed to jail. Haven admits having written the letter, but says Ragland had it put in the postoffice to get him into trouble. They had a dispute over a contract.—[Owensboro Messenger

"Whenever you find a man finding fault with a local paper, open it up and ten to one he hasn't an advertisement in it; five to one he never gave it a job of work, three to one he does not take the paper; two to one he is a subscriber he is a delinquent; even odds he never does anything that will assist the publisher to run a good paper, and for y to one that if the paper is a good one and full of life, he is the most eager to see the paper when it comes out."
Moonlight Picnic.
Last Saturday night Capt. S. K. Cox gave a moonlight picnic in honor of Miss Lula Irene Chapman, of Louisville, at his brick kiln. It was a nice affair and fully three hundred people were in attendance. Music was furnished by the Cornet Band and the Hartford String Band. The Captain had prepared a fine wagon load of water melons and all enjoyed the feast. Dancing was the order of the evening and the young people participated until a late hour.

VOICE CULTURE.
A Music Studio in Charge of Miss Annie Griffin to be Opened
Next week.
Great Opportunity for Vocal Training.

Miss Annie Griffin will next week open a Music Studio in a suit of well arranged rooms she has secured at the Hartford House. Miss Griffin has spent the past year in the study of vocal culture, under the best teachers in Louisville. She has a voice of surpassing richness and beauty and the superior facilities for training have rendered her an adept in the art.
She has already obtained a number of pupils and others will be added to the list in the near future. Persons desiring the very best training in Vocal Culture should patronize Miss Griffin's most commendable enterprise.
Miss Griffin is recommended by the highest music authorities in Louisville. Beside recommendations from Prof. W. R. McQuown and other music teachers of the city, is the following from a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music and successful teacher:
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 20, 1895.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—I take great pleasure in recommending Miss Annie Griffin as a teacher of Vocal Culture. Having received instructions from the best sources in the State, in her chosen art, together with a gifted voice, I assure those who may secure her services will find her fully competent to teach and zealous in her efforts to please.
AGNES PAULINE COLLINS, Graduate of Boston Conservatory of Music, 732 Third Avenue.
Miss Katharine B. Whipple, of 1191 6th St., the leading teacher of Vocal Music in the city, says: "Miss Griffin's voice is brilliant and powerful and is suited for a large hall and for concert singing. She has been taught the purely Italian Method and is very capable of teaching."
Miss Griffin is one of Hartford's most worthy and most popular young ladies and our people wish for her the high success for which, by her splendid natural gifts and her excellent attainments, she is so abundantly prepared.

Just By Doing Nothing.
"I'm not hurting my horse," said a rough, hard-faced man, when the agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals spoke to him. "Why, I'm not even touching that horse, and I haven't gone near him for an hour."
"That's just what's the matter," said the agent. "You've let him stand out there this bitter cold weather without a blanket. See! the horse is shivering with the cold. It isn't what you have done, but what you haven't done." And the man was taken before a judge and fined.
"Why, I haven't done anything to Rover," said Johnny, one hot day last summer, as his mother began to reproach him. "I went off with the boys, and I haven't seen Rover all day."
"But, Johnny, that's just the trouble. You knew there would be no one left at home, and yet you gave Rover no food or water before you started. When I got home, an hour ago, I found the poor dog almost mad with hunger and thirst. It's often just as bad, Johnny, to do nothing as to do something very bad."—[Golden Rule.

Foster & Brown's Store Burned.
Last Monday night Messrs. Foster & Brown's store house was burned at Centertown, and all the contents were destroyed. The house was valued at about $400 and the stock of goods at about $2,500, with an insurance on both for $1,500. The origin of fire is unknown, as it seemed to spring up from the inside while no one was about. The loss will be quite heavy on the young gentlemen, who are excellent fellows.
Young men or young women aspiring to any vocation in life should always remember that the bottom rounds of the ladder of time are filled to overflowing, but there's always room at the top. That's where Dr. Bell's Anti-Flux for colic, cholera and diarrhoea stands. It's sold at 25c and 50c on a guarantee by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.
On account of Hardin County Fair at Elizabethtown, Ky., September 10 to 12th 1895, tickets will be on sale Sept. 10, 11, 12 and 13th at one fare for the round trip good till Sept. 14th.
That Nelson Again.
Mr. Cornet says he is not responsible for his publicity, but the blessed thing is still growing and little roses are appearing where the bloom should be and all the seed are spoken for.
The Pleasant Ridge High School opened last Monday morning with a large number of students in attendance. A great many patrons were there to witness the opening, and all seemed well pleased with the prospects. Everything points to success and if the interest now manifested by the pupils, patrons and teachers is maintained, the school will prove to be all its directors expected.
The Eclipse.
The eclipse of the moon came to time promptly as advertised Tuesday night, the shadow appearing just half a minute before 10 o'clock. The sky was perfectly clear and there was an unobstructed view of the eclipse. The obscuration was total at 11:50 and it passed out of the shadow at 1:53.

Not Guilty.
For some time the peace and good order of Taylor Mines have been disturbed by the presence of a house of ill fame. The good people recently took some steps to rid the town of the disgrace, but failed and the sold doves swore out warrants of arrest against Mr. Adam Nave, and others. Mr. Nave's trial came up yesterday and he was acquitted. Attorney J. S. R. Wedding assisted County Attorney Neal in the prosecution and Attorneys C. M. Barnett and Sibelby Taylor conducted the defense.

The docket of the court of appeals is now complete, being the largest in years—over one thousand cases. There will be seven judges to decide these cases, however, and the present members are hard workers. In point of cases decided last term, the eccentric Judge Guffy easily heads the list. There is suspicion that in the allotment the venerable chief justice gives to Judge Guffy the easy ones, but as the decisions are usually in the line of justice and common sense, there has been no kicking except from disappointed litigants. The Judge does not waste any words in his opinions. A young Western Kentucky attorney, who is personally fond of Judge Guffy, recently undertook to advise him about his opinions. "You are making a good reputation," he said. "The people are indulging only one criticism. They say you do not enter into sufficient details. Your conclusions, they say, are correct, but they want to know your authorities and the line of reasoning by which you arrive at these conclusions." "You may tell my critics," replied the Judge, "that I am not running a kindergarten for young lawyers. If they want to know the law supporting the opinions, let them look it up like I did."—[Owensboro Messenger.

Negro Hater Hardin.

If there ever was a man who tried with a desperation almost maniacal to make political capital out of the "Negro" domination cry, that man is Negro-hater Hardin:

Defeated on every point which he has attempted to discuss, afraid to discuss State issues, completely routed on the "bloody shirt" yell and ingloriously repulsed on the currency question, Hardin does nothing else but raise the Negro yell.

Col. Bradley explained his views on this subject fully and plainly at Louisville, and yet Mr. Hardin is not satisfied. At Hopkinsville he devoted more than half his time to the Negro question.

Gen. Prolific Wonder Hardin, this gigantic museum freak, should be exhibited all over this country. We think he would draw well.—(Kentucky Leader.)

A Standing Offer.

There are two methods of teaching Book-keeping—one by the "Text Book Copying Process," the other by "The Patented and Copyrighted System of Actual Business from the Start."

From the first you get the theory; from the second you get the practice. Try Our Actual Practice Methods four weeks, then if you prefer the old plan of copying printed transactions from a Text Book, no charge will be made for the trial two weeks, and in addition we agree to give you a full diploma course in Book-keeping (using the Text Book on Book-keeping of any author you may name) Absolutely Free.

Remember that the Lexington Business College is the only school in Lexington, Ky., using the Practical Actual Business System of instruction.

All others use the "Text Book Copying Plan."

The above College is one of the best of its kind in the South.

Should any reader of this paper desire to attend a Business College it will be to his interest, to see or write the editor of this paper.

Late Literary News.

Fiction and travel are the strong points of the September Cosmopolitan which, by the way, illustrates better than any previous number the perfection of its plant for printing a magazine of the highest class. Conan Doyle, H.H. Boyesen and Clark Russell are among the story-tellers. A well-known New York lawyer relates the story of "A Famous Crime"—the murder of Doctor Parkman by Prof. Webster. A delightful sketch of "An English Country House-Party" is from the pen of Nina Larre Smith—the house at which she visited, being no less than the historic Abbotsford, still occupied by the direct descendants of Sir Walter Scott. "The Realm of the Wonderful" is descriptive of the strange forms of life discovered by science in the ocean's depths, and is superbly illustrated in a surprising and marvelous way by the author, who is a member of the Smithsonian staff. An article on Cuba is timely. Without bothering the reader with unnecessary description of the famous yachts now so much talked of, The Cosmopolitan presents four full-page illustrations showing these noted boats. Thomas Moran again contributes a series of the most exquisite landscapes of western scenery, twelve in number, illustrating an article by Col. John A. Cockerill, on "Modern Utah." And it may be said that so beautifully illustrated number of The Cosmopolitan has ever been given to the public.

the day after. "It was the finest house you ever see and the finest folks. The table was set out in bang-up style. Lace on the table cloth and such flowers I never see! But not a thing on it to eat but some candy, some little nuts all shelled, and such things. But by and by one of the men standing around brought me some of the finest soup you ever e't. And as I didn't see nothing else to eat, I had some more and some more. And then what do you think? Hang me, if those men didn't bring on the dinner ever you see; and there I sot, like a fool, chuck full of soup!"

Is Kentucky a Doubtful State? The peculiar political conditions that exist in Kentucky have led many people to believe that the State is a doubtful one and that the Republicans have a chance to carry is this fall. For this reason there is great interest, both at home and abroad, in accurate and reliable political news from all parts of the State. The Weekly Courier-Journal is now covering this field perfectly, and it is publishing the news without bias or prejudice. A close reader of the Weekly Courier-Journal should be able to forecast in advance what will be the outcome of the State election next November. In news of every kind, the Courier-Journal is offering to its subscribers $6,000 in cash presents for guesses as to exact vote and closest to the exact vote that will be received by the Democratic, Republican and Populist candidates for Governor of Kentucky. The price of the paper is only one dollar a year. Sample copies containing full detail of the cash present plan will be sent free to any address. Write to COURIER-JOURNAL COMPANY, Louisville, Ky.

The lady (?) who yesterday called the attention of another to our patched breeches, whereat they both laughed so heartily, was informed that a new pair will be purchased when her husband's bill is settled. It has been due nearly a year. Don't criticize a printer's dress too closely while you are wearing silk with money due us. Tell your husband to send us $40.78 and save the cost of a lawsuit. We need another pair of pants.—[Lebanon, (Ill.) Journal.]

It were idle to ignore the fact that the people are deeply discontented as to many of the features of our foreign policy during the past two years, and that they look with profound anxiety and will hail with tempestuous favor a change in the direction of their National pride and patriotic feeling.—[Washington Post.]

A Novel Scheme. A new way of collecting old debts is being introduced in Maine towns. The introduction of the scheme is a novelty, too. A young woman of alleged great attractiveness is the advance agent, and between her own attractions and those of her scheme she is said to be having complete success. She calls on the local merchants and secures their membership in the new agency. A few days after her departure there appear in town a number of men dressed in bright green coats, who get the particulars of old debts and debtors from the members and then proceed to call on the victims. The contract provides that the horribly conspicuous collectors shall make fifteen calls a day on each creditor, meeting him anywhere and everywhere. The scheme is reported to be a big success, as most of the debtors are glad to make a prompt settlement rather than have the whole neighborhood see them haunted by the green-coated specter.—[N. Y. Of Interest to Ladies. We offer no apology in placing before you "The Ladies Safe Protector," it is absolutely reliable, easily adjusted, does not become misplaced and insures protection. Can be worn when desired without observation or knowledge of another and prevents disagreeable annoyances under certain conditions. If you use it once you will never be without it. It is faithful, safe and reliable friend whenever needed by special circumstances requiring its use. It is an article every woman should keep ready for immediate use. It is simple to use, and inspires confidence to the woman using it. It is reliable and scientifically made, insures protection without injury to health, and any good physician would say. We are of the opinion that no article has ever been made which will give as much satisfaction to the women to-day as "The Ladies Safe Protector." The immense sales of this article is a substantial endorsement of our claim. Do not therefore experiment with any of the numerous unreliable articles, as it is both dangerous to health and expensive to do so. Such experimenting can only result in loss of time, disappointment and dismal failure. Ladies should remember this before ordering other goods and not waste their time and money on inferior articles. The best is always the cheapest. "The Ladies Safe Protector" is sold under a positive guarantee for use for one year, with full directions and is sent sealed in plain wrapper upon receipt of express money order for $2.00 three for $5.00. Do not wait but order at once. Address, THE LA CROSSE SPECIALTY CO., La Crosse, Wis. 48-1 yr.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paragoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrup, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper.

Eyes and Glasses.

Said a well-known optician: "You have no idea how many people come in here daily who want cheap glasses. Affections of the eyes, which require the nicest and most accurate adjustment to correct, and which cannot be done without good glasses, are deemed of less moment than other so-called human necessities." While he was speaking a man entered who purchased a pair of spectacles for twenty-five cents. "There is an example," continued the optician. "That man's sight will probably become worse. But there's a large demand for cheap glasses, and we are forced to supply that demand."—Cincinnati Tribune.

BIG PROFITS ON Small Investments.

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but no where can they make so much within a short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provision and Stock.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR invested can be made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system. It is a well known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

WRITE FOR CONVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers ALL FREE. Our Manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard to our standing and success.
